example projects are given. Throughout both modules, the use of interactive teaching methods is emphasized to encourage active learning.

The course of the entire program is approximately six months. A general timeline for program implementation is as follows: